An organisation that's here for you

Across Hong Kong we have been a trusted and leading provider of medical protection for doctors and healthcare professionals for more than 60 years. Today, we are proud to offer advice, support and defence to more than 10,000 healthcare professionals.

We understand the challenges that medical professionals face, and this experience means that we are best placed to provide clarity for you in what is often a complex and unpredictable environment. We understand the pressures associated with changing reforms and the strain created by the increased scrutiny of the medical profession, but with healthcare professionals at the core of our team, we are here to help you understand and navigate this new landscape and the ongoing challenges of modern practice.

Over and above protection, we use our experience and judgment to offer a flexible range of benefits and practical skills through our comprehensive education faculty – offering risk management workshops, online learning and free education events.
